New Shelter at Somewhere

The Waterville Lions club donated a new shelter located at “Somewhere”, west of Waterville. The metal structure was erected in the fall of 2015 and the Lions Club put down the flooring and added benches on the side during a work day this winter.

Future plans include having rail rides to Somewhere in connection with gatherings like birthday and anniversary parties. The fee structure for such events is yet to be determined.

Czech Festival

The January - April display at the Blue Rapids Historical Society features “Our Heritage” with Irish, German, Swedish, Mexican, Czech, and Portuguese items on display. The museum will host a Czech festival on Saturday, April 23 and be open from 9am to 4pm with lunch from 11am to 2pm.

The MCRHS plans on offering rail rides from Blue Rapids east across the Big Blue River Bridge and back. Rides will start at the Blue Rapids Caboose at 10am, 11am, 1pm and 2pm.

Work Work Work!

There is always work to be done on a railroad. Larry Moon, Kenny Winkenwader, Larry Springer, Jim Dobbins, and Dave Crawford recently cleared some dead trees from the ditch along the track west of Waterville.

Regular maintenance includes:

- Clearing brush and timber
- Track maintenance
- Equipment maintenance
- Mowing
- Spraying for weeds

If you would like to help with any of these activities, contact the CBRR rail superintendent, Larry Moon. Email: lm@centralbranchrailroad.com
